Drafted Men Make Fine Showing

A great deal has been said about the inability of Americans to give a good account of themselves in the European war because of their ignorance of firearms and lack of military training.

The mother, Mrs. Ethel W. Davis, was being treated at Providence Hospital until a short time ago, but now is in a private sanitarium, Davis explained. Carl was put in the orphan asylum during the absence of Mrs. Davis from the home at Tuxedo.

JUDGE FINES BREAKER OF GAME LAWS $10

Even though everything is high $10 for a brace of ducks is more than enough and Theodore A. Sevenhuy-ser, a retired member of the Marine Band, and ardent sportsman, has de-cided not to indulge in the fascinating sport of duck shooting for some time to come. His good name saved him yesterday from being fined $100 by Judge Pugh in the Police Court, where Sevenhuyser was charged with in-duiging in his pastime of shooting ducks in the marshes near Benning, contrary to law. The fine for the first offense is $100, but owing to his good reputation the ex-bandsman was fined only $10. David Wolf appeared for him as his atterney.
